c, 1	Ajay Maken	Minister of state (Indp Independent charge), Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Government of India	I am extremely delighted to see the facilities at the centre. The management/governance model should be replicated at other parts of our country with more private participation. International linkages to keep the centre abreast with the latest developments in the field is required, with downward penetration in our country through SAI centres. Keep up the good work!
